- (a) maintains an independent system of accounting; and
- (b) can be separately identified by reference to the nature of activities carried on at the location of the branch or division, the Commissioner may in writing permit the registered taxpayer to file separate returns in relation to each such branch or division subject to such conditions as he may impose.

(3) The Commissioner may in writing revoke any permission granted pursuant to subsection (2) where—

- (a) the registered taxpayer fails to comply with any conditions thereof;
- (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection are no longer met; or

(2) Where the Commissioner General is not satisfied with the calculations on any return furnished by a registered taxpayer or the basis on which the return is prepared, the Commissioner General—

(b) shall, in any such assessment, state the general basis on which the assessment is made.

165/1999.

10/2014
S. 22(b).

(4A) Where the Commissioner registers a person as a registered taxpayer pursuant to section 28(2), the Commissioner may make an assessment of the tax deemed by him to be due and payable in respect of supplies deemed by the Commissioner to be taxable supplies, made by that person during each taxable period beginning from the date referred to in section 28(3)(b) and beginning on the date on which he is so registered.

21/2001
S. 3.

(5) Where an amount which is payable by a registered taxpayer has been assessed and notified to that taxpayer, the amount shall, subject to section 40, be deemed to be the amount of tax due from that taxpayer and may be recovered accordingly, unless the assessment has been withdrawn or reduced.

(6) It shall not be lawful for the Commissioner General, after the expiration of six years from the end of any taxable period, to make an assessment or alter an assessment so as to increase the amount payable thereunder.

165/1999.
10/2014
S. 22(b).

165/1999.

(b) in any other event that Commissioner shall give notice in writing to that person of his decision in respect of the objection, so, however, that where that Commissioner fails to hand down his decisions within six months of the receipt by him of the objection and the delay is not attributable to the person's omission or default, the assessment shall be null and void.

(5) Where no valid objection or appeal has been lodged within the time specified for such objection or appeal, or where the amount assessed has been agreed to under subsection (4) or has been determined on appeal, the assessment as made, agreed to or determined, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive.

(6) Where the Commissioner of Taxpayer Audit and Assessment is satisfied that owing to absence from the Island, sickness or other reasonable cause, a person was unable to make application under subsection (1) within the period specified for an objection to be made, he shall extend the period as may be reasonable in the circumstances.
