

THE KINGDOM OF SWAZILAND ACT

Act
20 of 1969.

[6th September, 1968.]

1. This Act may be cited as the Kingdom of Swaziland Act. Short title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation.

“commencement of this Act” means 6th September, 1968;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for external affairs;

“Parliament” means the Parliament of Jamaica.

3.—(1) On and after the commencement of this Act, all existing law, that is to say all law which, whether being a rule of law or a provision of an Act of Parliament or of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever, is in force on the date of such commencement or has been passed or made before that date and comes into force thereafter, shall, unless and until provision to the contrary is made by Parliament or some other authority having power in that behalf, and subject to the following provisions of this section, have the same operation in relation to Swaziland, and persons and things belonging to or connected with Swaziland, as it would have apart from this subsection if on that date there had been no change in the status of Swaziland. Operation of existing law.

(2) The Minister may, by order, make such adaptations in any enactment passed before or after the date of commencement of this Act, or in any instrument having effect under any such enactment, as appear to him necessary or expedient in consequence of the change in status of Swaziland on that date; and any such order may, though made after that date, be made so as to have effect from that date.

(3) Every order made under subsection (2) shall be subject to negative resolution.
