period for which the Commissioner has been reappointed, shall be eligible for reappointment for a further term of five years from time to time.

Duty of Commissioners to revise laws.

4. It shall be the duty of the Commissioners to cause to be prepared, maintained and published an edition of the laws of Jamaica in accordance with the provisions of this Act, which edition shall be known for all purposes as the “Revised Laws of Jamaica”.

Revised Laws to be published in loose-leaf form.

5.—(1) The Revised Laws of Jamaica (hereafter referred to as “the Revised Laws”) shall be published in loose-leaf form or in such other form as the Commissioners may determine and shall comprise such pages as may be authorized to be included therein by order of the Minister made under section 6.

(2) Every page comprised in the Revised Laws shall bear a reference to the order by which its inclusion therein was authorized.

Inclusion in or removal of pages from Revised Laws.

6.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Minister by order published in the Gazette to authorize the inclusion in the Revised Laws of each page to be comprised therein.

(2) Any order made under this section may authorize the removal from the Revised Laws of any page—

- (a) which has been replaced by a new page authorized by such an order to be included therein; or
- (b) in any case where the provisions contained in that page may be omitted from the Revised Laws by the Commissioners by virtue of the powers conferred on them by this Act;

(3) The inclusion in or removal from the Revised Laws of a page by the authority of an order made under this section shall have effect from such date as the Minister shall declare in the order.

Validity of Revised Laws.

7. Subject to the provisions of section 9 and section 12, the pages of the Revised Laws shall from the date declared in the order or orders by which their inclusion was authorized, be in all courts and for all purposes whatsoever deemed to be and shall be the sole and proper Statute Book of Jamaica in respect of the laws contained therein, other than Commonwealth laws:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the operation of any provision in a law (in relation to which pages have not been included in the Revised Laws) which repeals or amends any law for the time being contained in the Revised Laws, or modifies the construction or application of any provision of any such law.

8. The Revised Laws shall subject to the provisions of this Act contain—

Contents of Revised
Laws.

- (a) as far as practicable every Law or Act in force, and which was enacted prior to the date declared pursuant to subsection (3) of section 6 in the last order made by the Minister under that section other than Laws or Acts omitted under the authority of this Act;
- (b) such regulations or other subsidiary legislation in force, and which were made prior to such last-mentioned date as the Commissioners think fit to include therein;
- (c) any Commonwealth laws which the Commissioners think fit to include therein;
- (d) a chronological list of Laws and Acts (with conversion table), a table of contents and an index:

Provided that where a page has been authorized to be included in the Revised Laws by an order made by the Minister other than an order made authorizing the inclusion of pages prepared pursuant to subsection (1) of section 10, it shall not be necessary to authorize by such first-mentioned order the inclusion in the Revised Laws of any Act enacted subsequent to the 31st day of December of the prescribed year.

Laws or parts of laws may be omitted, and shall continue in force.

First Schedule.
Second Schedule.

9.—(1) It shall not be necessary for the Commissioners to include in the Revised Laws—

- (a) the laws specified in the First Schedule;
- (b) those parts of the laws mentioned in the first and second columns of the Second Schedule which are specified in the third column of the said Schedule;
- (c) any current financial appropriation Act;
- (d) any law containing only special provision in relation to the pension of any person named therein; or
- (e) any enactment making provision in relation to the application or non-application of any law of Jamaica to the Turks and Caicos Islands or the Cayman Islands as Dependencies or otherwise:

Provided, however, that the said Acts, laws, or enactments shall remain in force until the same shall have been repealed or shall have expired or become spent or had their effect.

First and Second Schedules.

(2) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette vary or add to the First and Second Schedules or either of them.

Revised Laws to be prepared as at the prescribed date and thereafter annually kept up to date.

10.—(1) As soon as practicable after the 31st day of December of the prescribed year and thereafter of each succeeding year it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to prepare in accordance with the provisions of this Act the necessary pages for inclusion in the Revised Laws so that it may contain all the laws which are required or authorized by the provisions of this Act to be included therein and are in force on that date.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to—

- (a) prevent the Commissioners from preparing pages for inclusion in the Revised Laws at more frequent intervals;
- (b) prevent the Minister from authorizing by order under and in accordance with section 6 the inclusion in the Revised Laws of any pages and the removal therefrom of any pages.

(3) In this Act “prescribed year” means the year 1969 or any other year which the Minister may prescribe in substitution therefor.*

11.—(1) In the preparation of the Revised Laws the Commissioners shall have the following powers, that is to say—

Powers of Commissioners.

- (a) to omit—
  - (i) all laws or parts of laws which have been repealed or revoked expressly or specifically or by necessary implication, or which have expired or have become spent or have had their effect;
  - (ii) all repealing or revoking enactments contained in laws and also all tables and lists of repealed or revoked enactments, whether contained in Schedules or otherwise;
  - (iii) all preambles and long titles to laws, where such omission can, in the opinion of the Commissioners, be conveniently made;
  - (iv) all words of enactment in any law or section of a law;

*L.N.N. 275/1970, 173/1971, 137/1972, 429/1973.

- (v) all enactments prescribing the date when, or the manner in which, any law or part of any law is to come into force, where such omission can, in the opinion of the Commissioners, conveniently be made;
  - (vi) all amending laws or parts thereof, where the amendments effected thereby have been embodied by the Commissioners in the laws to which they relate;
  - (vii) all enactments providing for the validation of acts or indemnity or alterations as to names, localities, offices, titles or ranks where such alterations have been embodied by the Commissioners in the laws to which they relate;
  - (viii) transitional provisions relating to the vesting or transfer of assets and liabilities or enactments providing for the continuance in force of existing regulations and other instruments or the validation thereof;
- (b) to arrange the laws by chapters in such order and manner as the Commissioners may determine and to leave unallocated such chapter numbers as they consider may be required for future enactments; and to attach appropriate marginal references at the head of each chapter;
  - (c) to consolidate into one law any two or more laws in pari materia, making the alterations thereby rendered necessary in the consolidated law and affixing if necessary such date thereto as may seem most convenient;
  - (d) to alter the order of sections in, or Schedules to, any law and, in any case where it is necessary to do so, to renumber the sections or Schedules;

- (e) to alter the form or arrangement of any section of any law either by combining it in whole or in part with another sections or other sections, or by dividing it into two or more sections or parts of a section, or by transposing words;
- (f) to alter the form or arrangement of any Schedule to any law, either by combining it in whole or in part with another Schedule or other Schedules, or by dividing it into two or more Schedules or Parts of a Schedule, or by transposing words;
- (g) to alter the form or arrangement of any law by setting out any section or parts of a section as a Schedule to that law or by transferring any section or part to an existing Schedule to that law, and to number any new Schedules;
- (h) to divide any law, whether consolidated or not, into parts or other divisions and to give to each such part or division a suitable heading;
- (i) to transfer any provision contained in any law from that law to any other law to which it more properly belongs;
- (j) to arrange the laws, whether consolidated or not, in any group or sequence that may be convenient irrespective of the date of enactment;
- (k) to add a short title or citation to any law which may require it, and, if necessary, to alter the short title or citation of any law;
- (l) to shorten and simplify the phraseology of any law and to modify the terminology of any law so as to ensure that Laws passed in Jamaica prior to 6th August, 1962, will be known as Acts;
- (m) to correct grammatical and typographical errors in the existing copies of laws, and for that purpose to make verbal additions or alterations not affecting the meaning of any laws;

- (n) to supply or alter marginal notes, but no marginal notes shall be regarded or construed as being part of any law;
- (o) to correct cross references;
- (p) to make such formal alterations as to names, localities, offices, titles and ranks and otherwise as may be necessary to bring any law into conformity with the circumstances of Jamaica;
- (q) to make such adaptations of or amendments to any law as may be required by virtue of any statutory provision having taken effect or as may appear to be necessary or proper as a consequence of any change in the constitution of any Commonwealth country;
- (r) to alter the terminology of any law to ensure that it will accord with any enactment which makes provision regarding the manner in which words or figures contained in that law shall be construed or otherwise modifies that law;
- (s) to do all things relating to form and method which may be necessary for the perfecting of the Revised Laws.

(2) In subsection (1), "section" includes subsection, a regulation, paragraph, or other division.

Limitation of Commissioners' powers.

12.—(1) The powers conferred upon the Commissioners by section 11 shall not be taken to imply any power in them to make any alteration or amendment in the matter or substance of any law or part thereof.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4), in every case where any such alteration or amendment is as respects any Act or Law, in the opinion of the Commissioners, desirable, the Commissioners shall draft a Bill setting forth such alterations and amendments and authorizing them to be made and every every such Bill shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, be submitted to Parliament and dealt with in the ordinary way.

(3) Any such Bill may have reference to more Acts or Laws than one although such Acts or Laws may not be in pari materia.

(4) In any case where an Act or Law, whether consolidated or not, requires such considerable alterations and amendments as to involve its entire recasting, the Commissioners shall draft a Bill accordingly, and any such Bill shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, be submitted to Parliament and dealt with in the ordinary way.

13. Where in any enactment or in any document of whatever kind reference is made to any law the provisions of which have been by virtue of this Act embodied in the Revised Laws such reference shall where necessary and practicable be deemed to extend and apply to the corresponding provisions in the Revised Laws, and all cross references in any enactment or in any document of whatever kind shall, where such cross references are affected by the operation of this Act, be read and construed with such modifications as circumstances may require.

Construction of references
to laws embodied in Revised
Laws.

14. The expenses of and incidental to the carrying out of the provisions of this Act (including the salaries and remuneration mentioned in subsection (3) of section 3 shall be paid from such moneys as may be provided by Parliament for that purpose.

Expenses.
