

ORDERS IN COUNCIL (AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION)

1

THE ORDERS IN COUNCIL (AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION) ACT

Act
5 of 1967.

[24th January, 1967.]

1. This Act may be cited as the Orders in Council (Amendment and Revocation) Act. Short title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation.

“appropriate Minister” means—

(a) the Prime Minister; or

(b) the Minister designated by the Prime Minister to exercise on any particular occasion the power conferred by subsection (1) of section 3;

“Order in Council” means an Order in Council made under an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament, or by the Sovereign in virtue of the Royal Prerogative;

“Order in Council to which this Act applies” means any Order in Council which applies, or applies the provisions of any Act of the United Kingdom Parliament, with or without modification, to Jamaica, but excludes any Order in Council which—

(a) is referred to in paragraph 6 (2) (b) of the First Schedule to the Jamaica Independence Act, 1962; or

10 and 11
Eliz. 2.
C. 40.

(b) applies to Jamaica by virtue of an enactment of the Legislature of the Island.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL (AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION)

Amendment or revocation of Orders in Council by Minister.

3.—(1) The appropriate Minister (hereinafter referred to as “the Minister”) may, by order, amend or revoke any Order in Council to which this Act applies.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) may contain such consequential, supplemental or ancillary provisions as appear to the Minister to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving due effect to the order, and accordingly an order which amends an Order in Council to which this Act applies may, where it appears to the Minister necessary or expedient so to do, modify any enactment of the United Kingdom Parliament which has been applied to Jamaica by that Order in Council.

(3) An order made under subsection (1) shall be subject to affirmative resolution.
